

Reference for Volunteer Positions with the Guatemala Accompaniment Project

The Guatemala Accompaniment Project (G.A.P.) trains volunteer observers or companions who live in rural Guatemalan communities with people at risk for human rights violations. Through their presence and links to a larger international network, the companion provides a measure of security and support. The companion shares in the daily life of the community and writes human rights reports.

You have been requested to provide a reference for a G.A.P. applicant. Because this work may be politically sensitive or even at times dangerous, it is important that we have an accurate assessment of each candidate's qualities. Please take the time to answer the following questions and mail to Guatemala Accompaniment Project, NISGUA, 436 14th Street, Suite 409, Oakland, CA 94612 or fax to 510-238-8444

Name of Applicant:

Your Name:

Your E-mail or Phone Number:

How long have you known the applicant and in what capacity?

Have you spoken Spanish with the applicant? If so how would you rate him or her?

Fluent	Good	Fair	N/A
--------	------	------	-----

Please rank the applicant on a scale of 1-10 (10 being the highest) in each of these categories. Please provide concrete examples if possible.

- Adaptability in facing new situations or frustrations

- Ability to live and work in a physically and emotionally challenging environment

- Emotional stability under pressure

- Diplomatic skills/ Sense of discretion

- Communications skills, both oral and written

- Cultural sensitivity and ability to relate to people of different class, racial, and cultural backgrounds

- Effectiveness in conflict resolution

- Dependability in following through on commitments

Do you have any concerns about the applicants ability to perform the role described above?

Is there anything else you would like to add?

Signature: _____

Date: _____