Accompanying the Quest for Justice: We Say No to Impunity and Genocide

- MEET with organizations that have witnessed first-hand the impunity in Guatemala, SPEAK with human rights workers who have received threats and acts of intimidation, and LEARN why they've turned to NISGUA accompaniment for help
- VISIT and EXPERIENCE G.A.P. (Guatemala Accompaniment Project) sister communities
- TALK with representatives from the Association for Justice and Reconciliation, which has helped 20 Mayan communities bring charges of genocide against 2 former dictators.
- Receive UP-TO-DATE and FACE-TO-FACE information on the current situation in Guatemala and learn what you can do to help!

Join the Network in Solidarity with the People of Guatemala for this extraordinary opportunity. This past spring, the Association for Justice and Reconciliation launched Central America's first lawsuit to bring a charges of genocide against a political leader who is currently in office. This coming year, NISGUA will work closely with organizations in Guatemala and the U.S. to support their efforts and ensure that justice is served.
